

Reginald “Flip” Hagood is the Senior Vice President for Strategic Initiatives at the Student Conservation Association. He serves as the lead executive for SCA’s strategic initiatives and business development. Prior to joining SCA he worked for the Department of Interior for 30 years, and in his last position worked for the National Park Service as the Director of Training and Education. He currently is a member of The Governing Council of the Wilderness Society, and is on the Board of Directors for the Institute of Conservation Leadership and the National Association for Interpretation. He received an M.S. degree from NOVA University in Florida and a B.S. degree from American University in Washington, D.C.