

Project Name: South Florida Water Management District-Trail Ridge

Contract Agency: South Florida Water Management District
Period of Performance: Winter 2008, Winter 2009
Approx. Area of Project: 350 acres
Activity: On the Ground Invasive Plant Management.
Approximate Acreage: 608 Acres

Progress:
 IPC began work on this site in the winter of 2008. The 2nd years treatment has been approved and will begin in January of 2009. IPC worked primarily on basal bark treatments of Brazilian pepper, cut & treat Melaleuca, and foliar treated Cogon grass.

Scientific Name	Common name	Cut and Treat	Girdle	Foliar Spray	Grub	Basal Bark
Tree Species
Melaleuca quinquenervia	Melaleuca tree	X			X
Multistemmed Species
Schinus terebinthifolius	Brazilian pepper					X
Herbacious Species
Imperata cylindrica	Cogon grass			X

Robert Servis begins the day at the Everglades National Park. IPC spent several days on this site retreating an area that had been previously infested with Brazilian Pepper and Mallaleuca

IPC has also worked in Key Biscayne and Everglades National Park and will begin an IDIQ contract for the National Park Service in the Virgin Islands in December of 2008.

